Caltra Corp. makes hostile takeover bid for AMC Pegasi Mine!

Intense combat involving drop ships and hopper gunships broke out overnight at the AMC Pegasi Mine Moresby Ridge. Sources report that as many as 300 fighters were involved in the fighting which was the heaviest fighting on Pegasi in two years. AMC Pegasi reports that after an all night battle, the Caltra security teams were driven out of the mine area by 10am following the early morning attack. The mine had been in the news frequently as the subject of an unsolicited financial bid by Caltra and operations problems. The spokesbeing reports that the mine equipment had sustained minor damage and will be undergoing repairs for the next several weeks. They report that the mine is expected to return to profitability in the near future. No Caltra representatives could be reached for comment. Casualties have not been released by AMC Pegasi or Caltra.

Explosion in River North

The commercial district in River North was rocked by an explosion this afternoon. An upscale office building was heavily damaged and the fire burned for several hours. Authorities reported that a hydrogen main had ruptured. Local hospitals report 27 casualties and 12 dead.

Gang Violence Intensifies

The ongoing gang conflict between the Grey Dogs and Steel Razors has spilled over and currently involves several other gangs. The Park South and Combat Zone neighborhoods are seeing intense fighting between rival gangs. Authorities have not released any casualty figures.
